Citizens Bank to Award $2500 in Scholarships

Citizens Bank of West Virginia is now accepting applications for $2500 in Citizens Scholar Awards to be granted to 2014 graduating high school seniors in Randolph, Tucker and Pocahontas Counties. The scholarship program deadline is April 18.

Since launching the scholarship program, Citizens Bank has awarded $27,500 to 44 high school students.

“The Citizens Scholar Award program is an extension of our dedication to community service and we’re happy to be able to invest in this new class of students who are going to be our future civic and business leaders,” said Kathy Leombruno, Senior Vice President & Marketing Officer. “We know how meaningful every scholarship dollar can be with the costs of higher education and encourage seniors to apply for this award which may be used towards tuition, housing or books.”

To be eligible, applicants must enroll as a full-time student for the 2014 Fall/Winter term at any West Virginia college, university or school and must have a cumulative 3.0 G.P.A.; additional requirements are outlined in the application. Scholarship award recipients will be notified of their selection at school awards ceremonies.

Information about the Citizens Scholar Awards may be found online at citizenswv.com. Applications are also available in school guidance offices.
