

Wamsley Retires from Citizens Board of Directors

Citizens Bank of West Virginia announces the retirement of Thomas A. “Andy” Wamsley as a member of its Board of Directors. He was appointed to the Board in 1984 and throughout his 36 year tenure served on the Loan, Trust, and Building & Grounds Committees.

A lifelong cattleman, he is the fifth generation to live and work on a family farm - started in 1835, and co-owner of C&J Dairy King in Valley Bend. He is a member of the West Virginia Cattlemen’s Association, Masonic Lodge #55, Tygart Valley Shriners, Pilgrim Commandery No. 21 Knights Templar of Elkins, and Beverly Chapter No. 23 Royal Arch Masons. He serves on the Randolph County Senior Center Board of Directors.

A 1954 graduate of Tygarts Valley High School, Wamsley formerly worked at Peerless Coal (1957 -1962) and Boilermakers (1964-1975). He served the community for 22 years as a Randolph County Commissioner (1980 – 2002).

“I have been honored to have served on Citizens’ Board to aid in making decisions that have helped the lives of individuals, families and business owners in our community,” said Wamsley. “The progress and innovation I’ve witnessed over the years at Citizens has been incredible. I know the bank will continue to grow and enrich customer experiences while being a champion for its employees.”

Married to Janice Wamsley for 67 years, they have four children; Tom Wamsley, Cheri Shifflett, Steve Wamsley, Marc Wamsley and nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

“Andy has been a dedicated director of our bank for many years and it has been a privilege to work alongside him,” said Nathaniel S. Bonnell, President & CEO. “During his term, Citizens has grown exponentially and we are poised for future growth and success –a great tribute for a board member to leave. We wish him all the best in retirement.”

Citizens Bank of West Virginia, with assets of $317 million, is a community bank headquartered in Elkins, West Virginia and operates branch offices in Parsons, Beverly, Snowshoe and Buckhannon. Citizens provides integrated financial services including retail and commercial banking, wealth management, and mortgage services in North Central West Virginia. The bank is a wholly owned subsidiary of Citizens Financial Corp. (OTC: CIWV). For more information, visit us online at www.citizenswv.com.

###